

Eric Vernon Engeberg

June 22, 1965 - October 3, 2018

Eric Vernon Engeberg, 53, of Crofton, Maryland, passed away on October 3, 2018. He was born in Laurel, Maryland, on June 22, 1965.

Eric was preceded in death by his parents, Stanley M. Engeberg and Brenda M. Engeberg. He is survived by his brother, Mark Engeberg. His extended family includes his aunt Vera Murray and cousins Debra Berkshire (whom he lovingly called, "Prima"), Sandy Mcquire, Patrick J. Murray, as well as many other relatives and lifelong friends.

A 1989 graduate of the University of Maryland with a Bachelor of Science in Business Management, Eric went on to learn Computer Aided Design and worked for various real estate developers in Florida.

Eric was passionate about playing guitar and especially enjoyed music from the 1980s. He was also an enthusiastic sports fan, supporting the Washington Redskins.

His favorite song, "Amazing Grace," reflected his faith and spiritual journey. Eric's final resting place is Lakemont Memorial Gardens in Davidsonville, Maryland.
