

Eric Carl Selckmann

September 1, 1970 - September 26, 2020

Eric Carl Selckman born September 1, 1970 was the beloved son of Mary Campbell Selckman and the late James Edward Selckman. He was the brother to Jim Selckmann, Denise Branham, and Susan Selckman. He was husband to the late Melissa Selckmann, and Uncle to Timothy Branham, and Great Uncle to Ella Branham. Eric's special love was Laura Martin who most recently shared travel, social fun, and all of the fun-loving antics by Eric that she could tolerate. Eric attended St. Jane Frances School, Archbishop Spalding High School, and graduated from Anne Arundel Community College.

Eric was best known for his love of sports especially his love of coaching baseball as an assistant at Northeast High School and Archbishop Spalding High School. Eric was a die-hard Pittsburgh Steeler's fan of which friends and family looked past and loved him anyway. Eric had an infectious smile that will not be forgotten, as well as a madd karaoke voice, and undocumented comedic skills. Details will be forthcoming for his celebration of life-- in the meantime the family requests that you smile because you knew him and live life to the fullest in his honor.

“ Eric was always “Everyone’s friend” . He was 1 of Riveria Beach’s bunch. I don’t think there was ever a time that I saw him and he didn’t have a bat in his hand. He truly will be missed. I send prayers to everyone who loved him and positive thoughts. He is now with HIS LORD and we will all see him again at the Pearly Gates for Eternity.

“ My condolences to Eric’s family. I felt like he was a part of my family as well. He was a beloved friend to my brother Chris and to my Husband Sean. He was in both of our weddings and traveled a great distance to be there with us. My daughter call him “Uncle Eric”. He was also a wonderful friend to me as well. He spent Christmas Eve with our family and I will never forget his kind heart. Rest easy buddy
