

Ernest Yinusa Omosun "Gabby"

November 30, 1951 - January 9, 2026

Ernest Yinusa Omosun (fondly called Uncle Gabby by his numerous nieces and nephews) was born on 11/30/1951 to the Omosun Royal family of Eguare, Ewu, Edo State, Nigeria. He passed away on 01/09/2026 at about 6:00 pm in Sinai Hospital, Baltimore, USA.

He attended Annunciation Catholic College (ACC), Irrua, Edo State, and later graduated from the University of Ife (now Obafemi Awolowo University, OAU), Ife, Osun State, Nigeria, with a Bachelor's degree in English. He worked at some government establishments in Nigeria, including Federal Government College, Jos, and thereafter came over to the USA for altruistic reasons, where he reunited with his younger brother and cousin and settled in Baltimore, Maryland.

Uncle Gabby could discuss diverse topics and always found a way to make his point. This made him very popular in the family because you knew that whenever he was around, there would be no boredom but agitated discussions, and the environment would be alive with activity (hence another nickname, Tawana, to the people). He was a people person. He left behind brothers, sisters, cousins, nephews, and nieces.

Yusuf, Haliru, and Mutana Omosun for the family.
