Essie Gore Steward

Born: April 12, 1932 Death: September 25, 2020

Essie Gore Steward transitioned from Earth to eternal life at Manor Care Nursing Home in Chevy Chase, Maryland.

She was the fourth of nine children born to the late Cleaveland and Ethel Whitehead Gore in Cedar Creek, North Carolina. One sister Ethel Gore, 35 nieces and nephews, and a host of family and friends are her survivors. Four brothers and four sisters predeceased her.

She was an honors 1950 graduate of Cumberland County Public Schools (Cedar Creek Elementary and Armstrong High). Following secondary school, Essie continued her studies and became certified in business management and several healthcare positions as a resident of Chicago, IL. This training and education were essential to her successful careers in numerous positions while living in cities such as New York and New Orleans during the 1960's to the 1990's. Essie returned home to Fayetteville in 1993 for retirement. Here she became happily involved in church and community activities.

A Fayetteville, NC celebration of Essie's life and internment will be postponed until further notice due to public health restrictions. For details call 301-423-
