

Faye Beyer

August 23, 1950 - September 17, 2021

Bob & Faye are no more. What God has joined as one, He has chosen to reward one to come home now.

Faye Beyer passed in peace Friday, September 17, 2021 at the age of 71. She was the former spouse and great love of Bob Beyer and the loving mother of Robbie Bell, Andy Bell, and Robert Beyer Jr. Her loving grandchildren include Lee Cleveland, Hailey Cleveland, and Brett Beyer; whom she loved all dearly. Her brothers and sister are Jeanie Allen, Leo Hill, and Alfred Hill. She also had great love for her nephew Gordon and niece Debra. She is also survived by dozens and dozens of people in life she gave her heart to unselfishly. Her transparent heart extended to all she met.

Although the great-granddaughter of Wilhelm Roetgen, who invented the x-ray machine, that part of her background was always drowned out by what people saw in front of them. They saw her heart in actions like: giving to those in need, extending forgiveness over and over again to others, opening her home to teens needing a home, or the love she extended in cooking. She made lunches out of love, baked cookies for military teachers and students, baked treats for bible study groups, and cooked for friends with a internal need that it be perfect to make it perfect for them. For Faye, everything had to be perfect..... and she was. The love and joy she shared from her heart was lovingly unfiltered because everything that flowed from her heart was innocently expressed in love and kindness.

A memorial service will be held Thursday, September 23 from Noon to 2:00 pm at:

Lighthouse Church
6691 Baymeadow Drive
Glen Burnie, MD 21060

For those who cannot be there, Faye would understand.

As we have already been blessed with flowers, instead of any future gestures, Faye would want you to hold on to it and give it to someone in need. That was who she was.
