“ Penny, Michael, John , Erika, & Brittney: My prayers are with you as you mourn the death of Butch. May he find the peace of Christ in his transition from this life. I'll never forget the most vulnerable conversation i ever had with him on the front porch of Appleby Ave. when he recounted his time as an altar server at the Shrine of the Sacred Heart. He was very proud of his connection with that parish and his faith. May that faith now carry him to the arms of the God who loved him beyond his wildest expectation. May the perfect pitch of angelic bagpipes lead him home!
