

Frank Christopher Salvarola

May 2, 1976 - January 7, 2025

On January 7, 2025, Frank C. Salvarola, cherished son of Brenda and Anthony Curtis, and Jane and the late Michael Salvarola, passed away peacefully after a courageous battle with cancer.

He now joins his beloved father Michael Salvarola, grandparents Frank and Lois Meadows, Edward and Olivia Salvarola, brother Mickey Salvarola, nephew Nicholas Salvarola, Uncle Marty Von Don Bosh and all our lost loved ones in heaven.

Frank is survived by his loving mom Brenda Curtis, mother Jane Salvarola, and devoted father Anthony Curtis. Frank was a special brother to eight loving siblings Lora, Stacey, Vincente, Vanessa, Dino, Jason, Chrissy, and Kevin. Frank will gratefully be missed by his aunts Dolores, Pam, Barbara and uncle Tommy. Along with cousins Michael, Steven, Scott, David and Jeff.

It always put a special smile on Frankie's face when in the presence of his beloved nieces and nephews and was proud to be called uncle to Chase, Ryder, Sydney, Matthew, Kristina, Kourtney, Ashley, Angelo, Jennifer, Olivia, Jake, Ava, and Katie. He will forever miss them.

Frank was a professional bartender in the tri-state area for over 20 years but enjoyed his time and comradery the last four years as a tech and electrician with Overhead Door Company in Baltimore, MD.

Frank's favorite past times besides spending time with his family and friends alongside his dog Raven were fishing, crabbing, rock climbing, surfing, boxing, drawing, and the natural talent as an artist of metal. He also knew how to enjoy a good bourbon and always pick out the greatest soundtracks of life. Frank loved his Italian and Appalachian heritage and loved to gaze at the stars and moon. He will be forever missed.

Relatives and friends are invited to a Celebration of Life for our beloved Frank to be announced at a later time.

“ I remember Frankie in many positive ways as he walked through life with Michael and I. Big smile, sense of humor, always waiting on people at gatherings, his sensitivity towards our feelings. His devotion and love for his dogs. Frankie adored and respected his Dad, Michael. After Michael’s death, I experienced the loss of some of Frankie’s joy. Frankie I know you now have the Joy, and Peace as there are no tears, pain or suffering when you are in the presence of Jesus , your eternal home. I’m sure you saw your Dad too! You were always in my heart and I loved you as a son. Love Jane
