

George Thomas Bailowich

November 12, 1964 - October 27, 2020

George Thomas Bailowich, passed away in his sleep peacefully and suddenly on Tuesday, October 27th, 2020 at the age of 55. Everyone who knew him would call him Georgie. He spent his free time working on cars, listening to oldies, and reminiscing on the good ole days. George was a son, brother, uncle, godfather, cousin, and friend to many.

George was born November 12, 1964 and raised in Baltimore, MD., and was the beloved son of the late Evelyn (nee. Gant) and Peter Bailowich Jr and brother to the late Joe (Wishbone) Bailowich. He is survived by 4 brothers and 1 sister; Patrick "Pat", Peter III "Pete", John "Johnny", Michael "Mike", and Diane (nee. Bailowich) Hamburg. He is an uncle/great-uncle to 13 surviving nieces and nephews, and 16 surviving great-nieces and nephews.

At this time the family of George will not be holding any services. Instead, the family will host a celebration of life in his honor and memory. To respect his wishes there will be a cremation taking place.
