“ George, my cousin, was my first friend. He was a year older than me. Our families spent most holidays, birthdays, and family events together. So, it was probably George who taught me to play with other kids. George is present in so many of my best childhood memories...from the very first of them...and he always will be. He was a great cousin, friend, and man. Sadly now, I hadn't seen George much lately, but its been somehow comforting just knowing he's been in the world with us. Perhaps I took that too much for granted. I'll miss him.

“ Visiting, and he and Evelyn so warm, and open. I even tolerated the cats. My husband passed 26 July 2020, but he and George got a long so well. We all loved David also.

“ George and I would play golf on Saturday. When a little rain would start, we would look at each other and both would say “I guess this is the ten percent the weather man predicted “. John Ballman
