“ Im the eldest of the three sons my mother Valerie Westveer brought into this world donated by our Father Gerald Doris. I have so many words I would have like to say to you before you went on into the unknown. I have a lot of memories with all my brothers Paul Doris, Shane Doris and Ryan Westveer , one specific memory is like to share about me and Paul was a time me and him had gotten into a full blown out fist fight, the story starts off by my mom asking me to wake Paul up for school he was in the 9th grade and to all that truly knew Paul he wasn't a morning person at all, after several try's of trying to nudge him and get him up I walked down stairs an got a cup of ice water an poured on his head at that point Paul had flipped out of bed like a ninja an started swinging at me with his fists for all of you who knew Paul he was never a fighter. I had kicked him down a flight of about 15 steps and he slammed into a plaster wall at that point I was scared he needed medical attention but he was laughing. I swore to myself after that day I would take on the role of being Paul's protector an to never lay a hand on him again. We had a strong bond and many great times together. I understood your pain inside and was always there for you I ask of you to be there for us when we need you shine your light our way. I will miss you deeply for the rest of my life Paul I love you
