“A mother's love is always with her children. Losing a mother is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. But her goodness, her caring, and her wisdom live on-like a legacy of love that will always be with you. May that love surround you now and bring you peace.” -Author Unknown

“ My condolences to the Askins, Strand, Davis and Funderburk families. Having experienced the loss of a parent, two siblings and all my grandparents, I understand the “sting” or pain and suffering caused by the death of our loved ones. (1 Corinthians 15:55). However, we can find comfort in the Bible’s message that “...death will be brought to nothing.” (1 Corinthians 15:25, 56-57) Jesus will make this possible. He will be as delighted to bring our dead loved ones back to life, here on earth, as he did his friend Lazarus, the widow’s son and the 12 year old girl. You can read about those wonderful resurrections in the Bible books of John 11:17-44, Luke 7:11-17 and Mark 5:22-24, 38-43. Those accounts are proof of what Jesus will do on a large scale, in the near future, to replace the “sting of death” with “great ecstasy” at seeing our loved ones again. It is a promise from God that GLORIA learned about when I saw her, a few years ago, at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah’s Witnesses on Old Court Road. I encouraged GLORIA to resume her Bible study and continue attending the religious meetings at the Kingdom in order to strengthen her faith in Jehovah God’s promise at Revelation 21:3-4, “...and DEATH will be no more.” YOU, too, can learn more about how the death and resurrection of Jesus makes this all possible. Go to the free website, JW.org, find the link “Bible Questions Answered”, look fo the topic “Jesus” and scroll down to the question, “Why Did Jesus Die?” You will find satisfying answers from the “...God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others.” (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). This I have endeavored to do. With Sympathy, Linda (Strand) Scott Sister-in-Law
