

Grace Louise Fairman

November 25, 1980 - September 4, 2019

It is with great sadness that the family of Grace Fairman (Jorgensen) announces her unexpected passing on September 4, 2019. Born November 25, 1980 in Baltimore, she was the fifth daughter of the late George Jorgensen and JoAnn (Rickour) Jorgensen. Grace was a homemaker, loving mother, sister, aunt, and friend. Her memory will continue to live on with everyone that she has touched. She will be forever missed. She is survived by her five boys Austin, Alex, Jacob, Jordan, and Jason "Bubba" Fairman, four sisters Liz, Lisa, Charlotte, and Helen, one brother George, one niece Destiny, and three nephews Matthew, Tyler, and Jacob, and a host of other relatives and dear friends. Grace's request to be cremated has been honored by her family. Details of a memorial service to honor her life will be announced by her family at a later date.

Tribute Wall

FO

“ Grace Louise Fairman

Funeral Home Owner - December 12, 2019 at 11:21 AM

ML

“ I will forever cherish our memories the stories laughter fun and sad times we shared with each other u are one of a kind my bff there will never be another one like u I'll always love and will miss u deeply until we meet again my dear friend ur now at peace our angel my best friend I'll hold u close in my heart 💜 ur 1# best friend

Marie Locklear - September 24, 2019 at 11:03 PM

LK

“ I will love and miss you bunches you are now one of gods special angels 💖

Lisa kesner - September 20, 2019 at 08:15 AM

CK

“ Forever in my heart❤️. Love and miss you always.

Charlotte Kesner - September 13, 2019 at 07:00 PM

LL

“ Sissy you will be forever missed and loved! Continue to watch over all of us especially your boys. I love you heart and soul always and forever! until we meet again.

Liz Largent - September 13, 2019 at 04:23 PM

HJ

“ I miss you so much sissy!! You will forever be in my heart!!

Helen Jorgensen - September 12, 2019 at 11:08 PM