“ To my big cousin I will never forget when you and Uncle Bobby thought it would be funny to make me fly off the waterbed and I almost hit the ceiling or how when I was all excited because I was finally old enough and allowed to walk the alley by myself to the Pop shop but i walked the highway back and saw you, my Dad and Uncle Bobby waiting to scare me so i quietly walked up behind you and asked what you were doing and you said \"Waiting to scare Cheryl\" Uncle Bobby turned and looked and started laughing cause I was literally right behind you but you never took your eye off the alley. I miss them days. I'm sorry I never got the chance to come to Baltimore to see you. I love you always and forever
