“ Hey there beautiful, I struggled a lot with what to say, how to say it, and whether I should even be here to share. So I'll just talk to you... There isn't a day that goes by that I don't think of you, the impact you've had on "my" life, and ultimately all of us that enjoy the civil liberties that you helped lay the groundwork for. Strong, driven, but THE sweetest most compassionate person you'd ever meet. "Well Mike" (pause for Mike's self correction) "Yes ma'am Gma, I'm trying" "Okay well call me when you get it done" I love and miss you with all of my heart. I can't wait to feel the warmth and strength of your hug again...

“ IN MEMORIAL: Helen Colbert Leakes Woodruff was a loving baby sister and aunt. We shared many family experiences. On weekends you could smell Helen’s cooking outside that would make the mouth water. We enjoyed all kinds of her dinners. She loved the chocolate cakes made by her niece. Helen’s work in the Black civil rights movement had a profound effect on our family. Helen’s entrepreneurship provided jobs for several family members. We remember dear Helen with love. The Paul A. Colbert, Sr. Family

“ My aunt Helen was a women of substance who loved the lord and her family. She was a very strong woman who maintained her poise during times of challenge and difficulties. My aunt taught me to persevere and to strive for excellence in everything I did. She taught me that nothing in life is impossible if you place all your faith in god. Memories of my aunt will be eternally engrained in my heart.

“ Ms. Helen, aka grandma, I only met you a couple of times but you were so sweet. I have heard so many stories about you and I know you had a heart of gold. The one memory I do have of you is folding clothes at Noi’s house and you were in such a happy mood. Rest in heaven grandma.

“ A LOVING, kind hearted, selfless, nurturing woman. Always high in spirit wanting to dance and sing, she loved to laugh and was always ready for a good meal. Grandma loved getting her hair and nails done. She loved fresh flowers and plants, could mend an unhealthy plant back to life in a matter of days. A true green thumb. She will always be my guiding light. The brightest star. There would be no me without her. I miss her EVERYDAY. Love you always Mama -Noi
