“ My name is Laura and I actually live nowhere near Delaware, as I'm situated in another country altogether across the world! I have been recently preparing for a bible study and was researching online some sermons and came across Ian Drucker's online contribution on sermoncentral.com. I began to search more about who he was, and I was shocked to discover his late passing. I wanted to just say that his service to the kingdom has reached even people across the world in small ways, and that I offer my deepest condolences to his family. Please be encouraged that he is now in the kingdom he so lovingly served and shared about. Sending love and prayers from Australia.

“Marti - Hollis and I send our deepest condolences but are filled with memories of the great times that we are shared. Bible studies together in the Kingsbrook Community in Frederick, Mission trips to Saint Martins, Retreats, our visit to Laurel, DE when Ian was the Pulpit Minister. Hollis always enjoyed Ian's input and leadership within the various men's groups. Ian was a wonderful Christian and great example to others. God Bless you as you enter the next passage of your life. We love you, Marilyn & Hollis - your extended family in Tennessee

“ I wish you peace and comfort during this time of sorrow. The Bible gives true hope of being reunited with your loved one. (John 5:28, 29) The Bible promises that your loved one will come back to life in the resurrection to paradise on the earth. (Acts 24:15)
