

Ian S MacDonald

July 29, 1947 - October 9, 2017

Ian Sutherland MacDonald, 70, passed away peacefully on October 9, 2017, following a long battle with cancer. Born on July 29, 1947 in Staten Island, NY, Ian spent most of his formative years living overseas. Some of his fondest memories are of his years in Madrid, Spain, from approximately 1960 to 1970. After returning to the United States, Ian joined the Army, and then settled in College Park, MD, where he started a career with the U.S. Postal Service. Having traveled and lived robustly early in life, Ian was content to spend his later years at home in Crofton, MD, with his beloved cousin, the former Janet Reinwald of New York, and her husband, Ed Dougherty. Perhaps his fondest life role was that of devoted "Uncle Ian" to their sons James, Sean, and Patrick. Following his retirement from civil service, Ian moved to Mardela Springs, MD, where he enjoyed visiting with family and friends, and watching documentaries and the History channel. Ian was one of three sons born to the late Catherine and Alexander MacDonald. He was very proud of his Scottish heritage. His father was 1 of 14 siblings born in Scotland. Ian is survived by many cousins in Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Tennessee, England, Scotland, and Australia. Ian will be remembered for his love of Scotland, his stories of Europe, his easy manner, and his endearing sense of adventure. A private service will be held to honor his memory, share stories, and raise a toast in his name. In lieu of flowers, gifts in memory of Ian MacDonald may be directed to support the University of Maryland Greenebaum Cancer Center. Please make checks payable to: UMMS Foundation.
