“ Iva remains truly unforgettable - electrically alive like a fine sports car in high gear or a bird in flight. Her paintings achieved a perfect merger between her love of nature and her respect for nature’s inherent magic, for which she took such lifelong enthused part. Iva made her home host to exploring big ideas, deepening of spirit, and cultivating the best in all she so graciously welcomed. Unapologetically herself, Iva remained young in spirit, frustrated by eyesight that eclipsed witnessing what she so loved. I cherish calling her friend, and in her remarkable children she left precious living gifts to us all. May they, and all who adored her, be well comforted by the radiance of her dear memory.
