

James Wilcox Dunbar

November 16, 1959 - October 16, 2024

James W. Dunbar, 64, of Harmans MD passed unexpectedly on 16 October 2024. He is the father of John R. Dunbar, Cheryl L. Miller, and Jakob N. Dunbar, grandfather to Emily and Nathaniel. He is the brother of Alex, Beth, and Michele. He is preceded in death by his parents Shirley and Ross.

James enlisted in the United States Army as a 63B, Power Generation and Wheel Vehicle Mechanic, after graduating from Ceaser Rodney High School in 1978. He was then assigned to Camp Casey South Korea where he met his first wife Yang Sun. After serving 1 year at Camp Casey he was assigned to Fort Meade, Maryland. Here he would finish his enlistment and separate from the Army in 1982. After separating, he would take courses at Rets Electronic Schools getting certified in Automation Robotics Technology. A fellow student and James would begin to work for L&S Diesel where he would become a Diesel Generator Technician. It was at L&S where he would make lifelong friendships and meet his second wife Susan. After 9 years of marriage, they decided to go their separate ways. James would continue to live his life working (for different companies), spending time with family, reading, learning, traveling, playing video games with his children and driving/working on his 2014 Mustang GT.

No services will be held. In lieu of flowers please make donations to Wounded Warrior or No Child Hungry.

Tribute Wall

RR

“ So sorry for your loss. James was a great guy. He will be missed. I enjoyed helping him work on his Mustang at the Fort Meade Auto Skills Center. Our prayers are with you and yours.

Ricky Robold - October 22, 2024 at 04:31 PM

AD

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Simplicity Cremation & Funeral Services

A Memorial Tree was planted for James Wilcox Dunbar - October 21, 2024 at 03:15 PM