“ Jamie had a heart bigger than Texas. He would do anything to help anyone and was a genuine soul. His smile lit up the room and his laugh was infectious. No matter how many times he fell down he always got back up and kept a positive attitude. He had the cutest southern accent and was a perfect gentleman. He was very talented in home improvement and could fix anything. He loved his family dearly. I will cherish the memories we made until we meet again. Although he will be missed, I find comfort knowing he's resting peacefully.

“ We rocked Special events for a few years together. We had many rides together. Being of service, drinking coffee, and figuring things out. I loved the laugh and smile you always gave when I yelled "security", even after 10 years we still got a laugh out of it. You helped me out when I was going to be a dad and walked me through my fears. You shared your love and even your regrets about parenting. You loved your kids so much. The vulnerability you shared in confidence meant a lot to me.
