

James Arnold Jones

November 27, 1945 - June 30, 2021

James A. Jones, age 75, died June 30, 2021 at Seasons Hospice, Harbor Hospital after a long battle with bladder and lung cancer. Born November 27, 1945 in Maryland, he was the son of Ruth Jones and Otis Jones.

Mr. Jones is survived by three children: Casey G. Jones, Naomi Eggleston and Jesse Jones and two bonus children: Scott Lewis and Joseph Jones. He also leaves behind seven grandchildren: Jacob Barnett, Alexandria Burton, Corey Burton, Aaliyah Jones, Madeleine Jones, Caleb Eggleston, and Oliver Eggleston, 1 great grandchild: Kingston Burton, and 3 bonus grandchildren: Derick Lewis, Sarra Lewis and Casey B. Jones.

He predeceased his siblings, William Jones and John Michael Jones, Sr.

A.J. was a veteran of the Vietnam War, and a retired Anne Arundel County fireman. He was a huge history buff and would spend numerous hours visiting cemeteries and plotting his family's heritage. His love for all things sports showed not only in his collection of baseball cards and Superbowl patches but also in his children's team photos where he was either their coach or team parent. He loved his friends and family which included his basset hounds, Annie, David and Annabelle and the entire AA County Fire Department.

Celebration of Life Services will be held Saturday, July 24, 2021 at 3pm at Anne Arundel County Firefighter's Union Hall located at 8684 Veterans Highway, Millersville, MD 21108. We will have a private funeral that following Monday.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in A.J's name to Season Hospice:
