“ I have not seen Jimmy since I was in the 5th grade, and next door neighbors on Riverside Drive, Brooklyn. He was always the kindest boy as we all played together. Obviously, I was only about 10 or 11 when we moved away, now almost 80, n I've never forgotten him.\nI'm sure our Lord has had him in his arms for several years now. God bless all. Pauline McMahon

“ Dearest Kathy ... You and Jim have been in our lives so long, and because of that - the pain is so deep it takes our breath away. Being with you both that Sunday was so beautiful, and we once again got to share so many of the good times we had. The laughs were wonderful, and even though Jim couldn't talk too much, his hugs were strong and loving - and receiving communion with him a special memory now. We know the pain in your heart - and also Chris and Jamie, their wives, and those beautiful grandchildren. You all have our deepest sympathy with his passing, and we join you in tears. Love you ... “ I am so sad to hear of Jim’s passing and very sorry for your loss. Jim was a great guy. So dedicated to his faith and St. Rose! I loved chatting with him before or after Mass, especially when he showed me pictures of his precious grandchildren! He was always engaging and full of passion when we talked about the Orioles, Ravens, or the PGA. It was always a delight to have him sitting right in front of the folk group when we sang each week at Mass, like he was our cheering section! He will truly be missed. I’m praying for all of you as you go through this difficult time. I’m sure he’s up in heaven now watching over all of you, just as he did while here on earth.

“ Mrs. Slavy, Jamie and Chris. I am deeply saddened by the news of Mr. Jim's passing. He was such a ray of sunshine at St. Rose and an avid supporter of the folk group. I greatly enjoyed chatting with him after mass about sports but mostly about Lily and John. My family has been attending mass virtually since covid started and have missed the St. Rose family. I know Mr. Jim is in heaven chatting with my dad who passed at the end of Dec. They often spent time after mass talking. May they both enjoy their heavenly reward. Please know that you are in our prayers.
