“ Thank you for treating my crazy family, like your family. Thank you for everything you did for my brother. You will be missed.

“ Papaw I do not have the words that can express the grief I feel losing you. You were so good to me and made me feel so loved. You always were so interested in what I had to say. You had the best stories to tell and I am so sad I could not hear them all. I know the day will come where we will meet again, and you promised me you would always be watching over my shoulder, but the world without you in it is going to be tough. You were so very loved and cherished by so many. You not only served your family, but you served your country for 25 years. That loyalty and discipline is astounding. I could never believe you were a Sargent because you never yelled at me once even when I was a young brat! Thank you for spoiling me beyond comprehension with your love and compassion. We will all miss you so very much. \n\nI find comfort that you can finally be free to do everything you love without the limits of your age ..I am glad you are no longer suffering, I am glad you are finally with your wife, friends, and all of the animals you spoiled along the way. Thank you for staying with us for so long. I love you so much papaw. I miss you. I can't wait to see you again. XOXO \"honeybun\"
