“ What a wonderful and kind neighbor Jim was. When we first moved next door 20+ years ago, he and Pat were some of the first to greet us. He was always there with helpful advice, or a witty pun. I vividly remember, shortly after we moved in, driving down the street and noticing another neighbor’s horse had escaped and I was at a loss as to what to do. Jim was near by and skillfully and very kindly helped return the horse to the correct side of the fence. He will always be remembered fondly by The Gough family.

“ I will never forget you Pop. You were always so nice to me. You loved your grandchildren a lot. It showed when you were around them. It’s like you would get a sparkle in your eye. I will never forget your stories and your jokes. I am glad I have the memories that I have with you. I love you and will miss you. I’m glad you’re at peace and home. I’ll see you on the other side.

“ I will miss splitting and stacking firewood with you, your jokes you told all the time, i also will never forget the story of bigfoot during the snowstorm. You taught me so much growing up and i wouldn’t be who i am today without you. I still have a bluebird box out in the yard that you made and will think of you everytime i look at it. I love you.
