“ Jason, I still can't believe this is happening. I never thought I'd be without you in my life. You are the most loving, caring & amazing person I've ever met. I'll never forget the day we met or the day we met again years & years later. There was a reason our paths crossed again after so long. You brought so much happiness, laughter & love into mine and my girls lives. We miss you so much. I know ur still with me & you always will be until we see each other again. The only thing that gets me through this is knowing that one day we'll be together again. I love you more then words could ever describe. Until then you're always in my heart & on my mind. I love you Jason. 🥺
