

JoAnn Cucina Faulkner

September 15, 1955 - January 7, 2024

Its with great sadness that we announce the passing of Our Beloved JoAnn Cucina- Faulkner. Better Known by friends and family as Jody. She was born in Baltimore Md. Shes Survived by her Wife Irma Faulkner, her sister Janice Fischer, 2 Nephews, 1 Neice, 9 Grandchildren, and a ton of great and great-great Grandchildren. She's preceded in death by Her Mom Frances Cucina, Dad Anthony Cucina, Brother Ricky Cucina, and brother-in-law Charlie Fischer. Jody loved Kittens, visiting with family, Mermaids and Shopping.

Tribute Wall

HS

“ Mommom Jody losing you had hit my kids hard. They loved you just as much as you loved them. Please watch over them.

Heather Salazar - January 18, 2024 at 02:13 PM

KB

“ She was a beautiful person. She will be truly missed. Love you

Kelly Brown - January 15, 2024 at 06:19 PM

AP

“ We love and miss you grandma Jody. The only picture I have of them together Astrid was 5 months old here. We will tell her stories about you. Until We Meet Again \r\nAlissa, Cody, and Astrid

Alissa Purdy - January 15, 2024 at 10:46 AM

TM

“ She always smile i am so happy I was part of her \nLife we will miss not she not in any more pain

Tina Mullen - January 15, 2024 at 10:42 AM

HS

“ Mommom Jody thank you for always loving us all so much. Thank you for always loving my bonus children just like your own. The love you always shown us will always be in our hearts.

Heather Salazar - January 15, 2024 at 10:16 AM

AF

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Simplicity Cremation & Funeral Services

A Memorial Tree was planted for JoAnn Cucina Faulkner - January 14, 2024 at 12:07 PM