“ I grew up a couple of blocks away from Joel, on the next street over. We really started to get to know each other in middle school. Joel was full of life and lived life to the fullest! I have such fond memories...from seeing him out in the driveway happily washing his car on a sunny day, ready to take on the world...to black lights and incense in his room, listening to “Mandy” and ELO...to Halloween in his haunted basement, equipped with spooky music toward the end of “Through with You” by the Lemon Pipers! I still think of that song every Halloween... In later years, fun filled and wonderful visits to Maryland! Joel, you will be sorely missed. Donovan, Carmen, and William – our love, thoughts, and prayers are with you.\nJohn Howard and family\nAcworth GA

“ So sorry to hear that Joel passed away. Our condolences to the family. I grew up across the street from him and he was like a big brother to me. He is a great spirit and always fun and happy. I remember he loved climbing trees and had to do so to rescue his cat! We had great times together and I will always keep him in my memories. We loved watching him try to wrestle his older brother too! Bill and Caroline Branca. Austin TX.
