“ I'm still in shocked n very saddened Johnny knowing I won't be hearing your voice with the great conversations we used to have on a regular bases. I have known you since we were like 13. I remember all the great memories that Sue and you and I shared throughout the years. The great conversations that we had n the laughter u brought into my life. Life is so unfair at times n this is one of those times. I hope u are in a better place then we are because this world will not be the same with you not in it and hearing your laughter. I love you Johnny and u will always have a special place in my heart. I will meet u on the other side and I will truly miss you so much until then. If u see my mom n dad make sure u say hello. Love you always n forever.
