“ So many good times and conversations when you would come up to my work and see me. You made sure nobody messed with me and gave me a nickname that always makes me smile when I hear it, "Sweet Pea". You were like a big brother to me and my guard dog when you would be at my work. Don't worry I'll look out for Tracey, Carrie and the grandbabies until my last dying breath. I can promise you that. I love and miss you. You weren't supposed to leave yet you had a lot more living to do. Give heaven some hell.
