

John James Logue Jr.

July 5, 1937 - September 29, 2025

John James Logue Jr. of Bethlehem, PA died peacefully on September 29, 2025, after a brief illness. John was born in Brooklyn, NY on July 5, 1937, and he and his family later relocated to Washington, NJ. John was an accomplished athlete and an award-winning wrestler.

John later settled in Bethlehem, PA, where he founded Environmental Uniform and later Mr. Doormat, which he ran successfully for many years. John was a prolific reader who appreciated a wide variety of books and poetry. He continued to enjoy the sport of wrestling and attended several NCAA Wrestling Championships.

John leaves behind three loving daughters and a son: Suzanne Lawrence (Jon), Jessica Dawn (Keith), Elissa Keeney (John), and Nathan Logue. John was devoted to his eight grandchildren: Dr. Logan Lawrence, Jack Lawrence, Pamela Lawrence, Miles Dawn, Alex Dawn, Carolyn Keeney, Nathan Keeney, and Brian Keeney.

John was laid to rest after a private funeral and burial at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Washington, NJ. He will be fondly remembered for his keen intellect, wry wit, incredible memory, and the unfaltering love he had for his children and grandchildren.
