

John David Nhare

November 2, 1953 - October 12, 2022

John David Nhare, age 68, passed away peacefully in his sleep on October 12, 2022. Born on November 2, 1953 in Washington, D.C., he was preceded in death by his father, Lee C. Nhare and his mother Betty L. Nhare. He is survived by his daughter, Kelly N. Chartos (Matthew) and his grandchildren Maci E. and Max R. Chartos. He is also survived by his sister Terri Lee Nhare-Russell and his brother Clyde Robert Nhare (Robin). John is also survived by five nieces and nephews, Brandi Sullivan (Jason), Shannon Jones (Ross), Justin Nhare, Megan Nhare and Jake Russell; and eight grandnieces and grandnephews, Madison, Anthony, Mikayla, Aubrey, Kayden, Jaxon, Westin and Kameron.

John retired from his house painting business several years ago but kept busy with managing the property where he resided.

John was a proud member of the United States Coast Guard. He and his buddies (Brian McDonald, Tommy McCarter and Rod Gift) decided to enlist in 1971. He was deployed to Greenland for five months and returned home and let his family know that Greenland was anything but green.

Even though they consistently tested his patience, he loyally watched his favorite football team, the Washington Redskins and faithfully followed the Baltimore Orioles.

As a teenager John was a surprisingly natural drummer and enjoyed riding the waves on his surfboard.

John will be truly missed.

A private service will be held at Crownsville Veteran's Cemetery for the family.

Tribute Wall

TR

“ John David Nhare

Terri Russwll - October 25, 2022 at 05:29 PM

TT

“ John was a good friend. We would talk about the Redskins and how much he despises Dan Synder. I will miss his laughter and the talks we had.

Terrence Trotman - October 25, 2022 at 01:09 PM

AN

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Simplicity Cremation & Funeral Services

A Memorial Tree was planted for John David Nhare - October 14, 2022 at 12:42 PM