“ If I had a dollar for every time people asked us if we're brothers growing up I would be a millionaire! I have tons of awesome memories and crazy crazy times we had in our 20's

“ JoJo will be terribly missed. I've known him for 19 years. Him and I fought ..God he was stubborn! We've supported each other we'd cry and always knew when the other laughed to hide the pains. Often talking about when our lives would be different. He has saved my life risking his JoJo Gave me a chance to live and find happiness. For that I will be forever grateful. We've talked about God he was a believer. In This I find peace and know he's ok. ~ Debby~
