

Judith Madaline McConville

October 27, 1945 - January 6, 2021

Judith (Judy) Madaline McConville, age 75, passed away from Covid-19 on Wednesday January 6, 2021 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Judy was born on October 27, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland and was the daughter of Norma and Richard Terry. She is survived by her loving daughters Robyn Davis and Dawn Shaffer, and six grandchildren Christian, Kalyn, Jordan, Thomas, Matthew, and Holly. She is also survived by her sister Shirley Diggle, and many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Judy was a friendly face to the local Linthicum and Glen Burnie communities as she proudly worked as a bartender and waitress at Howard's Subway for over twenty years until the tavern closed in 2013. She also worked as a Mystery Shopper for Giant grocery stores for over 30 years. More than anything, Judy enjoyed spending time with her family and the family's pets, especially her 'grandpuppies' Sasha, Loki, and Rue. She was also particularly fond of going to casinos and playing slot machines. At home, she completed countless puzzles while sipping on a fresh cup of coffee. Judy was a wonderful cook who loved bringing her family together at meals.

Family and friends were everything to Judy. From raising her daughters to taking a very active role in helping raise her grandchildren, Judy will be remembered as a loving and generous woman.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

“Robyn and Dawn, I am so sorry for your loss. I didn't keep in touch as I wish I would have but I always loved all off you and Aunt Judy was a wonderful special woman who I loved! Too many memories to pick just one! She was always caring and welcoming no matter the person or situation. She will be missed.

“I hadn't seen Aunt Judy in many years when she passed, but I will never forget her laugh, or how she was ALWAYS doing a puzzle qnd the kitchen always smelled of coffee... but most importantly how much love she gave me when we did have time together. She was an amazing woman, and she will be missed dearly.

“ Where to begin. Years of fond and funny memories. The eventful projects: Collapsing your shed, putting the Entertainment Center doors on backwards... Our roadtrip the happening town Turkey, NC. I'll cherish the time spent enjoying dinners at your home as well as at Restaurants. Our most recent day out; so lovely by the water. Also the puzzles, Holiday Parties, The Straight No Chaser Concert, nights at Howards, countless cups of coffee... Too many memories to count. What I will remember most though, is how you welcomed me to your Family and were always there to lend a hand when needed. A true Friend... A rare find. Love you Judes. I will miss you so very much.
