

Karen Lynn Coleman

January 20, 1966 - March 23, 2026

Karen Lynn Coleman, daughter of the late Herbert Lewis Coleman and Theresa Irene Molock, was born on January 20, 1966, in Baltimore, Maryland. She peacefully transitioned from this life into eternal rest on March 23, 2026.

Karen was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Southern High School in 1985. She had a deep and abiding love for music of all kinds, especially R&B and Gospel. Karen also found great joy in studying the Word of the Lord, her faith served as a steady and guiding light in her life.

Above all, Karen's greatest devotion was to her family. Caring for them was not simply something she did, it was where her heart truly lived. Although she had no children of her own, she embraced a nurturing role with her nieces and nephew, loving and supporting them wholeheartedly and taking great pride in their lives.

Karen will always be remembered for her kind words during difficult times, her thoughtful and sound advice, and her gentle, loving spirit that touched everyone who knew her.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory two devoted sisters, Renee Molock and Towanda Gambrill; five beloved nieces, Latavia Brown, Sheenia Dean, Tyarra Brown, Amani Fisher, and Abria Fowlkes; one great-niece, Aria

Brown; one great-nephew, Jaylen Wright; and a host of other loving family members and dear friends.

Karen's legacy of love, faith, compassion, and quiet strength will forever live on in the hearts of those who were blessed to know and love her.

Tribute Wall

TB

“ She will always be remembered for her warm personality love u always

Tyarra Brown - April 27 at 12:30 PM