

Karen Alice Veal

April 29, 1964 - February 15, 2024

Karen Alice Veal, 59 years of age, passed peacefully surrounded by her loved ones on Wednesday February 15, 2024 at her sister Jeanie Ewing's house in Hillsboro, MD.

The courage Karen displayed in facing cancer head-on was an inspiration to us all. She taught us invaluable lessons about life, love and resilience. Her journey was a powerful reminder that even in the face of adversity, one can find strength, hope, and the capacity to inspire others.

Karen was born April 29, 1964 in Easton MD to the late Mary Veal and George Burch. She was born and raised on the eastern shore of Maryland in Caroline County where countless happy memories were made. She was the second youngest out of her seven siblings, three preceded her in death. Karen was educated at North Caroline High School in Ridgely, MD.

Karen was a kind and compassionate woman. She was always willing to help anyone she could in any way she could and was a great listener. Karen loved to spend time with grandchildren, friends, and family and was always down to party! She loved taking beach trips and creating handmade jewelry. She was always the most vibrant woman in the room and loved to make people laugh. She touched many hearts and will be greatly missed.

Karen is lovingly remembered by, her daughters Amber Korell and Auburn Fountain (Andre Childs); her grandchildren Desiray, Taevon, Jasmyn, Jeremiah, Alexiz, Layla, Chase, and Andre Jr.; her sisters Eileen and Jeanie; her brothers Larry and John; and an abundance of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

Celebration of Life ceremony will be held at Harlem's -108 E Central Avenue Federalsburg, MD 21632 on April 20, 2024 beginning at 4:00pm.

In lieu of flowers her daughters are requesting financial assistance for the celebration ceremony. Please send ceremony donations to Amber Korell 306 Vesper Avenue Federalsburg, MD 21632.

"In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still. In our hearts you hold a place, no one else ever will."

“ Even though your gone woman, you still are always on my mind. Your always someone in my darkest hours I can think of you and it always makes me laugh and appreciate life to it's fullest. Your light that was a gift you shared with many many people no matter the curve balls thrown your way you ALWAYS HAD THE BRIGHTER SIDE SPIRIT REGARDLESS OF HOW HARD THEY WERE GONNA HIT YA. \nI remember the night I first met you, I had never laughed so hard that loud, that long, or that much in YEARS. you said to me I was the younger version of you. Which I couldn't haven't agreed more. Through the years getting to know you more and more and hearing your life's journey from a young age to an amazingly strong woman who has\nOvercome so many obstacles so many trials and tribulations and yet still no matter the height of that mountain you still made it move. You still paved your own path over and over again. You carved your path on your own terms on your own strength, courage and love for others to a man much greater than ever before. The alpha and the omega surely have their hands full now. You went with a pack of people that were always apart of your life, Mr. Tom, Mrs. Doris, Baby Tom, and even Harvey 🙏 those people are one of a kind such as yourself and I can only hope and pray you all keep close eyes on the remaining Usiltons and friends. Keep guiding them and walking with them through their life's journeys ahead. We all miss you.... 1 pea out of the pod signing out The 2 left here will always be looking forward to seeing your shining armour again one day.... Love you forever and always 💕💕 HAPPY MOTHERS DAY BEAUTIFUL

“ I grew up next door to Mr & Mrs Jock Lister so I played with Karen and Jeanie a lot as kids. I loved them! I am so thankful that I had the chance to visit with Karen a few months ago, been tied up fighting my husband's cancer battle with him for the past two years. I'm happy that her fight is over and she is at peace but sad for all her loved ones. I know she adored her girls & will still be with you always- just in a different way. Hugs to all. Rest In Peace beautiful, til we meet again.
