

Katharine Kileah Gott

July 6, 1978 - August 21, 2020

Katharine Kileah Gott blessed this world with her bubbly demanding presents on July 6th of 1978 to Father Keith Harden and mother Denny. She married her soulmate Thomas Gott, exactly two years after meeting on a blind date at one of her favorite places on Earth, the Calvert County Fair.

Katt's mind was always going. The love of Criminal Minds kept her mystery solving skills keen and the love of reading fed her vivid imagination. She never outgrew the love of coloring- though often wearing black- brightly colored balloons, Lego mini figures, unicorns and rainbows decorated the world she, husband Tommy and Son Christian (born March 8th 2002) lived in.

Her small nuances (like believing cat ear headbands for wedding attire) kept a smile on the face of all who seen. Family, whether by blood or by Soul, felt her love as we gathered. Her love for starry nights were fitting, her eyes made the Stars seem dim and the passion for sunsets was to form. You see the Sun took a back seat to her smile. Her heartbeat to the crooning of Sam Cooke and her spirit fed by God's word and The Melody of Ray Boltz.

She was proud of her family and stood firm on her faith in this forever changing world.

Her absence will be missed by all who knew her but her love for life will live on by all she touched.

“ I met Kat several years ago at Calvary Gospel Church where I was teaching a Women's Bible Study. I was very impressed with Kat, She was always the first person to get to class. Tommy was always faithful to bring her regardless of the weather. I gave Kat the name Kitty Kat. She was always so bubbly but what I admired most was her writing skills. At such a young age she had such significant spiritual insight. Tommy has been a faithful husband to her through the good and the bad. Tommy, I hope you can find comfort knowing that Kat is no longer in any pain or suffering from any kind of illness. Hold fast to God's unchanging hands. Keep close to His Word. It is through His Word that you will find peace and strength and the ability to keep going on.

“ I will forever remember Katy's wonderful, infectious giggle! She was so loving and caring to us...and I love being her Grandma Barrettes!! I'm so very happy that I got to go to church with you that one Sunday when I lived in MD, and also got to attend her special surprise birthday party. :) What happy memories she has left me. I'm praying for you and for Christopher, Tommy!!

“ I was Kat's foster aunt, and she used to call me \"Auntie Hannah,\" even though I was younger than her. We wrote letters. She came to my highschool graduation. She sent me her Boppy pillow when I had my baby. She told me about her love for Tommy, once telling me she shaved half her head to make sure he really loved her. :) And I saw how much she loved Christian, and I know she's so proud of him graduating! I'm thankful her life touched mine. I love you, Kat! Hold all my babies in Heaven. I know you'll do a great job.
