

Kay Lee Gorman

November 14, 1933 - January 6, 2025

Kay Lee Gorman, age 91 peacefully passed away in her home in Annapolis, Maryland on Monday, January 6, 2025.

Kay was the daughter of Virginia Kathryn Brown and Robert L Wells.

Kay was born in North Wilkesboro, NC and raised in a rural community of Jonesville, NC. Kay began her education by excelling in grade school and finishing college some years later with a master's in history. Kay met her first husband as she hosted a cooking show called "Kay's Kitchen" where she met Edgar C. Dove Sr., who was also in broadcasting. Along came military life overseas with three children. Following that tour the family settled back in the DMV in 1965 where her fourth son was born. Kay spent more than 15 years as a contracted researcher at the Library of Congress in Washington, DC, doing what she loved. A second marriage to Richard L. Gorman in 1986, brought her to the Annapolis area. Kay lived in Annapolis for the last 39 years.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by husband Richard L. Gorman. She is survived by four children, Edgar C. Dove Jr. and wife Kathy of Manassas, VA, Robert H. Dove, of Charleston, SC, Thomas W. Dove, of Annapolis, MD and Jesse W. Dove and wife Marnie of Florence, AL. There are three surviving sisters, June Lester, Kathy Fischetti and Etta Sue Worley. Kay also had four grandchildren, Amanda, Jason C., Crystal and Jason A.,

along with nieces and nephews.

Kay fought Parkinson's for the last 8 years of her life in a brave and private way. She was always a fighter, sometimes hardheaded but always compassionate to others. The world was made a better place by the grace of her life.

A graveside ceremony will be held at the Island Ford Cemetery, 2124 NC State Rd 67, Jonesville, NC on Monday, June 2nd, at 2:00 pm.

In lieu of flowers, the family would encourage a donation made to Parkinson's Research.

Mom, we will truly miss you and will always hold you in our memories.
