“ Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Growing up we had so much fun. From skelly, rebuilding bikes to football games we played on circle at the end of the block. Kenneth came to my birthday parties. He even convinced me to get up on a bar top and sing knowing I could not hold a note. It was a blast. Endless memories. I can never thank him enough for his unconditional love and support he gave his nephew, my son Jason. From his first steps to adulthood he was always there. He would not want us to be sad but rather celebrate his going home. It is written in the Bible: John 16:22 “Therefore you too have grief now; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.
