“ The loss of a long time co-worker is always sad, the passing of a lifelong fishing and crabbing companion with whom countless pleasurable hours were spent is heartbreaking. The death of a close and dear friend of over 60 years is tragic. However the sudden loss of my dear brother Ken , who also happened to be all of the above, is painful beyond belief. Ken and I shared some great adventures together, and even a few misadventures. I am just hoping that someday the memories of the happy times we spent together will out weigh the sadness that I am feeling today. My Heartfelt sympathy to Susan for the loss of her Husband, to Andy for the loss of his Dad, and to the rest of the Lewis family for the loss of a dear family member Rest In Peace My Brother Love and miss you for forever Mike

“ So many memories of years spent with Ken, along with Keith and the Lewis family. Went to Oriole games together, swimming at their house almost weekly, family trips/vacations, playing community baseball, so much more. Ken and I shared the love for rock music. I spent so much of my life with Ken and Keith. They were such a major part of my childhood. My heart goes out to all the Lewis family, to his wife, Susan, and his son, Andrew. My cousin, Kenny, will never be forgotten. Love ya, Cousin David
