“ It's been a year. I miss you so much. So many times I'll say to myself I need to call you and tell you something and then it hits me. Doesn't mean I don't talk to you. As bad as it is losing dad and you. I'm am happy you're together. Love and miss you. Until we all meet again. - Amber

“ This is my favorite picture of my mom and dad. It kills me everyday knowing what they will miss out of my life and I will miss out of there.but I know they are together the way they would have wanted. I hope they are smiling down on us know we all love them, I love you mom and dad forever and always.
