Kimberly was born in Frankfurt, Germany on October 8, 1984 to Augusta A. (Malcome) Reid and Vincent F. Reid. She was the younger of two children. She was the mother of one darling little boy, Amari Christopher Elerby of whom she loved dearly. Kimberly, also known as "Kim" and "Kimmie" to many of her cousins was a 2003 graduate of Jefferson High School in Shenandoah Junction WV. She was always there in some manner to assist her family and friends when able. The apple of Kimberly's eye was her son Amari. She was always grateful to God for blessing her with him. There was a genuine and divine love among them that no one could break. If she cried, he would sometimes do the same, or just lay there and pat his mommy. If she laughed, many times he would just break out in laughter. If she hurt or felt bad, he connected. She always said, "I thank God for giving me him (Amari)." Kimberly was a member of the Sylvannah Praise and Worship and Healing

“ To my cousin Vincent Reid and Augusta Reid , my heart is broken . I can only imagine what you both are going through. The last time that I talked to Kim , it was very sweet and we both had something in common, our little Amari.. I carry him with me all the time in my wallet . I pray that GOD will be with you both during this time and remember I love you both.
