“ I am so sorry to hear my friend, Laila Nasrawi has passed on. She was a sweet lady. I met her when we were at Garfinckel's together. We worked together for 15 years, was was a full time employee while I was part time). She loved her family, especially her sons and granddaughter Brittany. I had tried calling her a few months back but the phone had been disconnected. I am so sorry to know she is gone. May she Rest In Peace! I'll continue to miss her friendship.

“ Grandma, I'm still trying understand this all. I keep looking at pictures and thinking no way you're gone, it's impossible. I think that's because you were the strongest person to me. I keep wishing I could rewind time & go back to when I was a little girl, lying in your lap while you sang me arabic lullabies. Your departure has left me with a massive hole in my heart & there is not another soul that will ever fill that hole. The amount of love I have for you is equal to the amount of pain I'm feeling & I've never felt such a pain in my life. Calling you grandma doesn't even feel right because you were more like a mother to me. Thank you for teaching me how to love & showing me what it feels like to be loved. Thank you for believing in me when no one else did. Thank you for being my mom, best friend, and hero. There's not enough words in this world to describe the love I have for you and I promise that love will never ever die. Thank you for the 23 years of being in my life and never leaving my side. Thank you for all the warm hugs & kisses. Thank you for the life lessons, advice, and support. Thank you for being the best grandmother ever. Thank you for telling me everything is going to be okay when everything was crumbling. Thank you for loving me when no one else did. Thank you for being the light inside my dark world. Thank you for teaching me that the world isn't so bad. When I was a little girl, I used to cry myself to sleep some times dreaming of this time. Since I was a little girl, losing you has been my absolute biggest fear.. Now that the time has come, it still doesn't feel like the reality I have always dreaded to face.. I miss you SO much, wow.....and I LOVE you SO SO SO SO much. I will love, miss, and think about you for as long as I live.

“ Mom... First and foremost I just want to say I Love you and miss you so much. I am saddened by the fact that I was unable to see you and kiss you or even hold you. It's OK Yumma you will always be in my heart and I will remember you for for all the good times we've spent together like our weekly Chinese food and Pizza night get together at the all you can eats... We would sit eat and talk for hours you would always love telling me those dirty Arabic jokes .You sure loved that Wonton soup and Chicken with cashew nut. The soup reminded you of that wonderful Shooshbarak (Arabic dumpling soup) that you would make and would laugh and say \" Shoof al Araf\" your Shooshbarak was no match to any Chinese food! Come on are you kidding me you were the Best in the kitchen your Taboulah, Hummes, Falafel, Stuffed squash (Mahshi) and let's not forget those Grape Leaves and the best \"Karshat\" ever... and I will always remember that on my Birthday, December 4th, Born on the day of St. Barbara you always made me \"Bourbara\". Ooooh and let's not forget the desserts like the Best \" Baklava\" and those \"S cookies\" (Arabic Suger cookies) You we're always happy and smiling in while you were cooking you used to Love cooking for our family and others and especially for Baba (Dad) George your Loving Husband of 60 year's. You we're always happy fighting with him and pushing his buttons. But he really loved you so much... Believe me! Yumma you are with Tete Bahia and Seadoh Afif now and most of all your with your Brothers and Sisters, as you were all well known as... (Dar El Baba) Laila, Mary, Lourice, Naim, Fuad and Elias. Yumma like said before I am saddened that I was not able to see you or kiss you and to hold you one last time, I want to always remember the laughs and smiles that we always shared and the times we cried about sad things you are and always will be a big part of my life you were a great Icon to everyone that has known you or has ever met you.. Every were you and I went you were always pampered and loved no one ever thought that you were in your 80's you were always young at heart and never minded doing or trying anything once \" free spirited\" You will never ever be forgotten Yumma ever! You were a Mother to all! Yumma for you have left a long and lasting impression to me and many others... You will always be remembered and loved. Your loving son, Iskander (Alex)
