Lattie loved his family immensely and was famous for random check-in phone calls. He was preceded in death by his sister Elle Rea McKnight, his grandson Carl Brice, granddaughter Jennifer Brice and his great-granddaughter Kimberly Brice. Lattie is survived by his long-term partner Mary Jo Ramseur. He is also survived by his son Joseph Keeton (wife Pauline), and his daughter Gladys Brown. He is also survived by his 3 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, and 14 great-great-grandchildren: Tia Gates (formally Tawanna): Antonio, Ymani (Faith, Kai, and Zachary), Joshua, Akilah, Jasmine, and Caleb; Joycelynn Brice: Kassandra, Monica (Carmen and Logan), Ebony ( Hassan, Paris, Kalif, and Malia), Ibrahim, Nadia, Tyler, Ryan, and Jayden, Bryan Keeton (Sayrianna); Jennifer Brice's living children: Katina (Raquelle, Zyah, and Ga'Leah), Greg (Jabari) and Dajoun. Lattie started his journey with the Lord at Bible Way Temple in Washington, DC where he attended for many years. He was also a faithful member at New Dawn Baptist Church in Hyattsville, MD before his health made it impossible for him to attend. Lattie will also be missed by his family at Chillum Oaks Adventist Apartments where he lived and worked as a desk associate for several years. Lattie was an avid bowler while his health allowed, and he loved a good game of Bid Whist. While at Chillum Oaks his laughter could be heard throughout the halls as he enjoyed his Wii bowling tournaments.
