

Laurence Oliver Humble

April 17, 1959 - May 12, 2026

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Laurence Oliver Humble, affectionately known as Larry, on May 12, 2026, in the comforting presence of loved ones.

Born on April 17, 1959, in Washington D.C., Larry departed this world after a serious illness. He leaves behind a legacy of stories and memories shared with friends and family. He is lovingly remembered by his significant other, June Bowers, whose companionship was a source of strength and happiness throughout their time together. He is also survived by his children, James (Kelly), Jonathan and Jennifer whom he raised with previous wife Deborah (Burke) Humble; grandchildren, Ryan and Gracie; sister, Wanda Walter; and many other family members who loved him dearly.

Larry's professional life was marked by his passion for excellence and integrity. In 1988, alongside his esteemed business partner David Williams, (deceased), Larry co-founded Valid Electric. The company, built on a foundation of craftsmanship and dedication, flourished under their leadership. Today, Larry's son proudly carries on the Valid Electric name, ensuring that their values continue to light the way.

When not immersed in his work, Larry pursued a wide array of interests that brought him joy and fulfillment. He was an avid gunsmith and enjoyed the precision and focus of long-range shooting. Larry's adventurous spirit led him to embrace the freedom of motorcycle riding and the camaraderie of traveling in his RV, exploring new places and creating lasting memories. His creativity knew no bounds, as he delighted friends and family with his original jingles, poems, and songs, always bringing laughter and joy to those around him.

Larry's legacy is one of love, laughter, and unwavering dedication. His spirit will continue to inspire and guide those who knew him. He will be deeply missed but forever cherished in our hearts.

Larry's life will be celebrated on July 26, 2026, at 12:00 – 4:00 PM at the American Legion Post 226, located at 830 Mayo Road, Edgewater, MD. It is a fitting location for a man who valued community and camaraderie. Family, friends, and all whose lives Larry touched are invited to join in honoring his memory.
