“ Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has chosen for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call; I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way; I've found now peace at the end of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss; Oh yes, these things, I too will I miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, look for the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much; good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seems all too brief; don't lengthen your time with undue grief. Lift up your heart and peace to thee, God wanted me now – He set me free. by Shannon Lee Moseley

“ Lennie or Bubba is what most called him. He cherished his grandchildren and great-grandchildren as they did him. He loved his family and his family adored and loved him. His amazing sense of humor, knowledge, and wisdom will forever be missed. When he wasn't busy his time was mostly spent with his grandbabies. He will be Forever Loved\n\n\nOur Grandfather, Bubba kept a garden, a garden of the heart; he planted all the good things, that gave our lives their start. He turned us to the sunshine, and encouraged us to dream: fostering and nurturing the seeds of self-esteem. And then the winds and rain came, he protected us enough; but not too much because he knew we would stand up strong and tough. His constant good example, always taught us right from wrong; markers for our pathway that will last a lifetime long. \nWe are our Grandfather's garden, We are his legacy.

“ Dad, \n\nWords cannot express the emptiness I now have without you in my life. I promised you I would be ok when God called you home. I should not have made you that promise. It's just too hard to keep. Without you I am lost. Thank you for always guiding me, being there for me, & showing me the true meaning of life. No matter what bad choices I may have made, you lovingly repaired my broken spirit, helped me move forward, and set me free to fly on my own again. There is no greater love than the encouragement you gave me to live a fulfilled life. No matter where life takes me, there will always be a special place within my heart that only you can own.\n\nPlease give my brother a kiss for me & tell him I miss him too.\nI Love You. I Miss You. I will Never Forget You.\nYour Loving Daughter,\nSandy

“ Bubba,I will miss the talks, the prayers, and the wild four wheeler ride that we took with God that day,I will never forget that look on your face, as I was launched into the air heading backwards, when God pushed my four wheeler forward. You always made me keep going on, you were my biggest strength. I love you dearly, and will miss you terribly, but I know that you are walking with others gone ahead in heaven, I know that you were ready, I just wasn't, see you again, til then watch over us.Thank you for everything.
