“ Lisa was my first cousin on my dad’s side. She was 2 yrs younger than me but we had a close relationship growing up and into our early adulthood. She was beautiful, wild and crazy, fun, loud, and always spoke her mind and told it like it was. I loved her for that! She was fiercely loyal and protective of family and loved her son Cory so much and was very proud of him. A fond memory I have of Lisa was the night before our grandfather’s funeral. We were all gathered at my grandmother’s home and Lisa and I were spending time together and catching up. Lisa had recently attended cosmetology and beauty school. Although she didn’t graduate, I felt she possessed enough knowledge and skill at that time to color my hair. We decided at the last minute, the night before the funeral, that Lisa would color my hair so that it would be fresh and presentable for the next days events. Things did not go as planned. The final results were green leopard spots throughout my blonde hair. I wanted to ring her neck! lol I could not go to my grandfather’s funeral looking like that. Lisa maintained her composure and calmly said “don’t worry, we’ll go to Kmart first thing in the morning and get corrective color and we’ll fix it”. I was so worried at this point. So at 7am when Kmart’s doors opened, we were there to buy our supplies. Lisa ultimately corrected the problem and all was well, just in time for the funeral. Years later we laughed so hard about that, and it still makes me smile when I think about it. I miss you cousin! You will always be in my heart. I love you. Rest in peace dear Lisa.
Your cousin CeCe

“ Lisa was a giver in life and not a taker. To those who knew her, she gave us her love, her generosity, her willingness to help and her forthrightness. To Cory, Oats and her Mother- Isaiah 41:10 \"So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.\"

“ Lisa You will be sadly missed even though we did not see eye to eye all the time you were a good neighbor and friend. You really did have a heart of gold I remember you pushing me and helping me study to pass my nursing state board test. You were a great mom to Cory and a great wife to Oats. Your love for your family and friends will live on. Although you are gone you will never be forgotten
