

Lorraine Ann Bach

January 28, 1937 - February 10, 2022

Lorraine Ann Bach, age 85, passed away peacefully February 10th, 2022. She was born January 28th, 1937, in Baltimore, MD to Frank and Anna Serra. She lived in the Waverly area and that is where she met her Husband George J Bach. They were married on March 2nd, 1957. George passed away on August 23, 2003.

Lorraine loved to cook especially Italian dishes. She was always busy doing something whether it was sewing, crafts or working in her garden. She always took pride on her home painting and wallpapering.

For many years Lorraine worked at St. Agnes Hospital where she was an administrative assistant. Later she moved to the Archives department where she was in charge of Categorizing all of the hospital's memorabilia and displaying it around the hospital. She was a member of the St Agnes Auxiliary and participated in organizing fundraisers for the hospital.

Lorraine is survived by her four children. Son George J Bach and wife Mary; Daughter Carole Bach; Son Gene Bach and wife Stacey and Daughter Lynne McDermott and Husband Thomas. Seven grandchildren, Spenser, Nicholas, Brittne, Sarah, Carley, Seamus and Gabrielle; plus 1 great grandchild Haley. Whom she loved very much.

Graveside services will be performed privately with immediate family only. A celebration of Life will be announced in the Springtime, in lieu of flowers, donations can be made in her name to The Alzheimer's Association at Act.alz.org
