

Louis Francis Giampaolo

March 12, 1951 - November 23, 2020

On November 23, 2020, Lou was called to forever serenade the heavenly angels and his parents, Hugo and Anna, who preceded him in death. He is survived by his brother, Thomas Giampaolo and his wife Donna, sister Josephine Long and her husband Dan, sister Theresa Palman and her husband Lee, as well as his loving nieces, nephews and cousins.

The simplest pleasures of everyday life in his hometown of Baltimore brought joy to Lou. Before retiring, he taught for decades in the Baltimore City Public School System. He loved to listen to music and perform karaoke, was an avid reader, a dedicated sports and trivia fan, a history buff, and a lover of the arts in general. He will forever be loved and missed.

Tribute Wall

DG

“Louie was a man of many abilities. He possessed a sharp mind. He was a talented karaoke performer as well as an avid tennis and ping pong player. He enjoyed watching the old black and white TV programs with The Andy Griffith Show being one of his favorites. He was a lover of classical music and enjoyed attending Peabody concerts. Louie was a gentle soul who never had an unkind word for anyone. I will miss his gentle spirit very much.

---

Donna Giampaolo - December 01, 2020 at 06:31 PM

JL

“My brother certainly had a unique way in dealing with things & life in general. But I know deep down he loved being around people, especially his family. He could talk nonstop about everything, from tv shows to movies & let's not forget his joy in performing karaoke! He longed to share his trivia knowledge with anyone listening. My brother Lou will be missed but not forgotten!

---

Josie Long - November 30, 2020 at 09:35 AM

KR

“Wishing my sweet uncle eternal peace. He was so very kind and always had great trivia to share with everyone. I loved talking about Frank Sinatra with him and listening to fun facts that he enjoyed sharing. He loved sharing his knowledge with others and his sweet spirit will surely be missed.

---

Kristy - November 29, 2020 at 03:07 PM