

Louis Everett Simone, Jr.

April 21, 1952 - January 15, 2021

JACK EVERETT SIMONE

Beloved husband, dad, and pop pop, Louis (Jack) Everett Simone fell asleep on Friday, January 15th at the age of 68, waking in the presence of his Savior.

He spent the last 50 years loving his wife, Sharon Simone. Jack grew up bowling every week with his father, later sharing that passion with Sharon and their children. Jack loved being involved in his children's sports programs whether it was coaching, umpiring or yelling (I mean cheering) from the sidelines. Most of his later days he could be found passionately cheering on his Baltimore Ravens and Orioles, and his Washington Capitals, watching his final Caps game with his wife and son on the night he passed.

Jack is survived by his wife, Sharon Simone, his six children and 15 grandchildren: Jeff and Lisa (Simone) Pearson with Mikayla, Gillian, Rebecca, David, and Andrew; Tim and Tami Simone with Rileyann, Elana, Henry and Quinn; Topher and Lori (Simone) Rife with Arianna and Elijah; Chris and Wendy (Simone) Newcomb with Aziah and Penelope; Karrie Simone; Darryl and Traci (Simone) Sargent with Callie and Kentley, his sister, LeeAnn Pettey (Simone); Father-in-law and Mother-in-law, William and Mary Hammond, along with a multitude of loving family members grieving with us at this time. He is preceded in death by his father, Louis Simone, mother, Lorraine

Boesche, sister Ruth Simone, brother David Simone and granddaughter Elle Sargent.

An outdoor celebration of life will be held in April, 2021. Details to follow, but you can guarantee t-shirt and jeans will be the appropriate attire, and don't forget your baseball glove.

“ I had been at Faith Baptist when the youth had a get together at the Simone house. From that point on I was constantly seeing Jack and Sharon when the youth were together. I remember at church picnics, it was obvious that you never lost the fire of competition. I am better off having known you and your family. They are your legacy, and a great one.
