

Luzviminda Magtoto De Guia

December 6, 1952 - November 9, 2024

Luzviminda "Luz" Magtoto De Guia passed away peacefully on November 9, 2024, leaving a legacy of resilience, love, and faith. Born December 6, 1952, in Pampanga, Philippines, Luz was a dedicated mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend. She was known as a strong woman, a fighter who faced life's challenges with grace and determination.

Luz was passionate about cooking, catering, and entrepreneurship. Her life was woven with the many small businesses she founded, each a testament to her entrepreneurial spirit and drive to provide for her family and serve her community. She generously shared her talents and often channeled them into church activities and programs, using her skills to serve the Lord. Luz's faith was central to her life; she loved the Lord deeply, prayed constantly, and attended church services in person or online whenever possible. Listening to Christian music brought her joy, hope, and comfort.

A natural helper, Luz touched the lives of many, including strangers. All who had the pleasure of knowing her will remember her warm heart and giving spirit. Her legacy lives on in her family, where she imparted her love for the Lord. Luz guided her children and grandchildren with unwavering faith, teaching them to find strength and purpose in their relationship with God.

Luz is survived by her three brothers and their spouses, her cherished nieces and nephews, her three beloved daughters and their spouses, ten grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Her family and friends take comfort in knowing that Luz is now at peace with the Lord she loved so dearly. May her memory be a blessing and her legacy a source of strength and inspiration to all who knew her.

Tribute Wall

AG

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Simplicity Cremation & Funeral Services

A Memorial Tree was planted for Luzviminda Magtoto De Guia - November 12, 2024 at 04:39 PM