

Margaret "Peggy" Elizabeth Boarman Painter

September 25, 1950 - October 12, 2023

Margaret Elizabeth Boarman-Painter was born on September 25th, 1950. She was known and loved by many throughout her life as Peggy.

Born at Garfield Memorial Hospital in Washington DC, she was the youngest child of two children of the late Roland and Dorothy Boarman. Peggy attended PGPCS and graduated from Northwestern High School in Hyattsville, MD in 1969. Upon her graduation she hastily joined Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in Washington DC.

She met Lee Painter whom she later wed. In April anticipating starting a family eventually consisting of their first child Scott Painter, followed by Laura Painter-Bess, then Sarah Painter, and finally Rachel Painter. Their union was finally complete and after a couple of years finding home in Cheverly, MD which has been the family home since the 70s.

While following the path of the Lord, she attended Landover Christian Church for many years. After working in the life insurance field for several years, Peggy transitioned over to a new career path in the early 90s to work with PGPCS, where she continued her career in Upper Marlboro, MD. She worked in various departments a woman of true versatility the divisions that she worked varied from the art, science, music, tag and other various divisions. Upon relocating to Crofton area, she continued on her path with the Lord, at the First Baptist Church of Crofton.

Peggy was a compassionate driven, loving, and kind woman. Her values became that of her children and that of her grandchildren. Of these values she made integral to her family treating others with kindness, being honest, loving, being compassionate, respectable, and holding strong to personal morals. Peggy was known as a kind, caring, loving person to all she encountered. Her heart carried the world.

After retiring in 2016, Peggy continued to pour her love into friends and family. During her retirement she would spend her time devoted to her children and grandchildren. She was always so proud of the family she built, she adored all of the people in her life.

Peggy was diagnosed with Breast Cancer for the first time in the late 2020. She smiled and fought through the battle to eventually beat it in 2021. She always stayed positive and expressed her love never losing sight of seeing the good in every person, experience, battles and always retained hope through the battle.

Peggy is survived by her brother Dr Gerald Boarman and wife Valerie Boarman and extended family, her cherished children and her beloved grandchildren Skyler (21), Joseph (20), Markell (19) Kalie (17), Andrew (11) and Kenna (10).

“ So sad, hearing about the passing of my friend, Peggy. We knew each other as children, growing up in West Hyattsville. Then, many years later, we had the good fortune to work together in the PGCPS. We shared many stories and laughs over the years. \nAll my love to her family. She will be missed. \nglo sessums

“Soaring star ☆” \n A super Mom, a Great grandmother, a friend to many and loved by your family. You have left your mark in this world and your memories will live forever through your kids and family. You left us in a hurry many of us didn't have a chance to say goodbye but, God needed you more. As you soar into the heavens and take your place, Peggy Painter has completed her race. ❤️

“ Peggy is far more than an administrative assistant or colleague. She is the kindest, most generous person, who is truly that “friend in deed”. She would reach out to me and check on me and my family even during her own illness. Family is so important to her, and she is very proud of you all. Keep making her proud. Her love and light will be with you. Blessings, Anita B. Lambert

“ Peggy was the best friend a girl could ever have for over 20 years!! We've laughed, cried, etc & I'll never forget all the good times & some hard times we have shared. \nEvery year Peggy would visit me in Chattanooga, TN. We would enjoy the Chattanooga Elk Lodge & all its various activities. I miss her. I'll always miss her. I love you Peggy! Enjoy Heaven! You certainly earned it.

“ I worked with Peggy at Metropolitan Life for a few years back in late sixties, early seventies along with Frannie Ayres. Peggy and I had our first babies together in the same year - I had Amy in January, she had Scott in November. We had a mutual friend in Jill Storey, and Jill became Peggy's daycare provider for Scott. We've kept in touch through Jill and Facebook (we lived in Ohio for 10 years) and this picture is one of us on one of lunch dates last year. Peggy was a sweet, kind soul who always loved everyone she met. Hugs and prayers for Peggy and her family. Cherish the memories. \nKathy Aguilar

“ Peggy and I worked together at Met Life in the late sixties / seventies . We were pals. We commuted to work together, ate lunch together, and generally goofed around. Like singing in the elevator at the tops of our lungs. We decked out her yellow VW Bug with a tree and garland during the Christmas season. Pic shows Peggy in her work clothes (a very short skirt like all the girls wore then). Peggy was a sweet, loving, fun, person then. From what I've read about her recently, she remained that same type of person. Peggy, I'll see you again one day.
